*Best Wishes!
Mrs. Bittick*

Because of her sincere and earnest efforts to guide us toward wisdom and maturity, we would like to express our appreciation to one who has given generously of her time, knowledge, and talents for the benefit of Monroe Academy, and who has always shown patience and understanding toward each of us.

We of the Chrysalis annual staff lovingly dedicate our 1970 Chrysalis to

Mrs. Myra P. Bittick

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee, dear Alma Mater,
To our white and blue,
We will give thee praise and honor
And to thee be true.
We will ever love and cherish
Years we spent with thee,
Thy ideals and dreams we'll cherish,
Montroe Academy!
We will praise and give thee honor,
Even though we part,
Alma Mater we will ever
Keep thee in our heart.

Agnes Cochran Bramblett

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

Board directs Monroe Academy through its period of rapid expansion

RIGHT: Executive Board - seated (left to right) Dan Stewart, Treasurer; Jerry Childs, Chairman; Larry Cox, Secretary. Standing (left to right) Cary Bittick, Vice-Chairman; Lee Vaughn, Sergeant-at-Arms. BELOW: seated (left to right) Olin Trammell, Jack Treadwell, Jerry Childs, Dan Stewart, Lee Vaughn, Jessie Daniels. Standing (left to right) Hodges Poore, Harris Carter, David Hencely, Cary Bittick, Larry Cox. Not pictured - Richard Davis, C. M. Millwood, Walter Bramblett, T. Lynn Davis.

Board spends long hours
on raising funds for the school.

The responsibility for the successful operation of Monroe Academy rests upon the shoulders of its headmaster.

You, as members of The Class of 1970, are reaping the harvest of a formal education in a free society. It is my sincere hope that, in so doing, you become aware of your American heritage in all its manifold aspects. Yours is a system of government based and operated on the principal of the freedom and dignity of the individual. Only your active, intelligent and critically constructive participation in the affairs of your government will keep and maintain the American heritage of freedom for the generations to come. Your responsibility is clear - discharge it well.

The world today is looking for men who are not for sale; men who are honest, sound from centre to circumference, true to the heart's core; men with consciences as steady as the needle to the pole; men who will stand for the right if the heavens totter and the earth reels; men who can tell the truth and look the world right in the eye;

Men who neither brag nor run; men who neither lag nor flinch; men who can have courage without shouting it; men in whom the courage of everlasting life runs still, deep and strong; men who know their message and tell it;

Men who know their place and fill it; men who know their business and attend it; men who will not lie, shirk or dodge, men who are not too lazy to work nor too proud to be poor; men who are willing to eat what they have earned and wear what they have paid for;

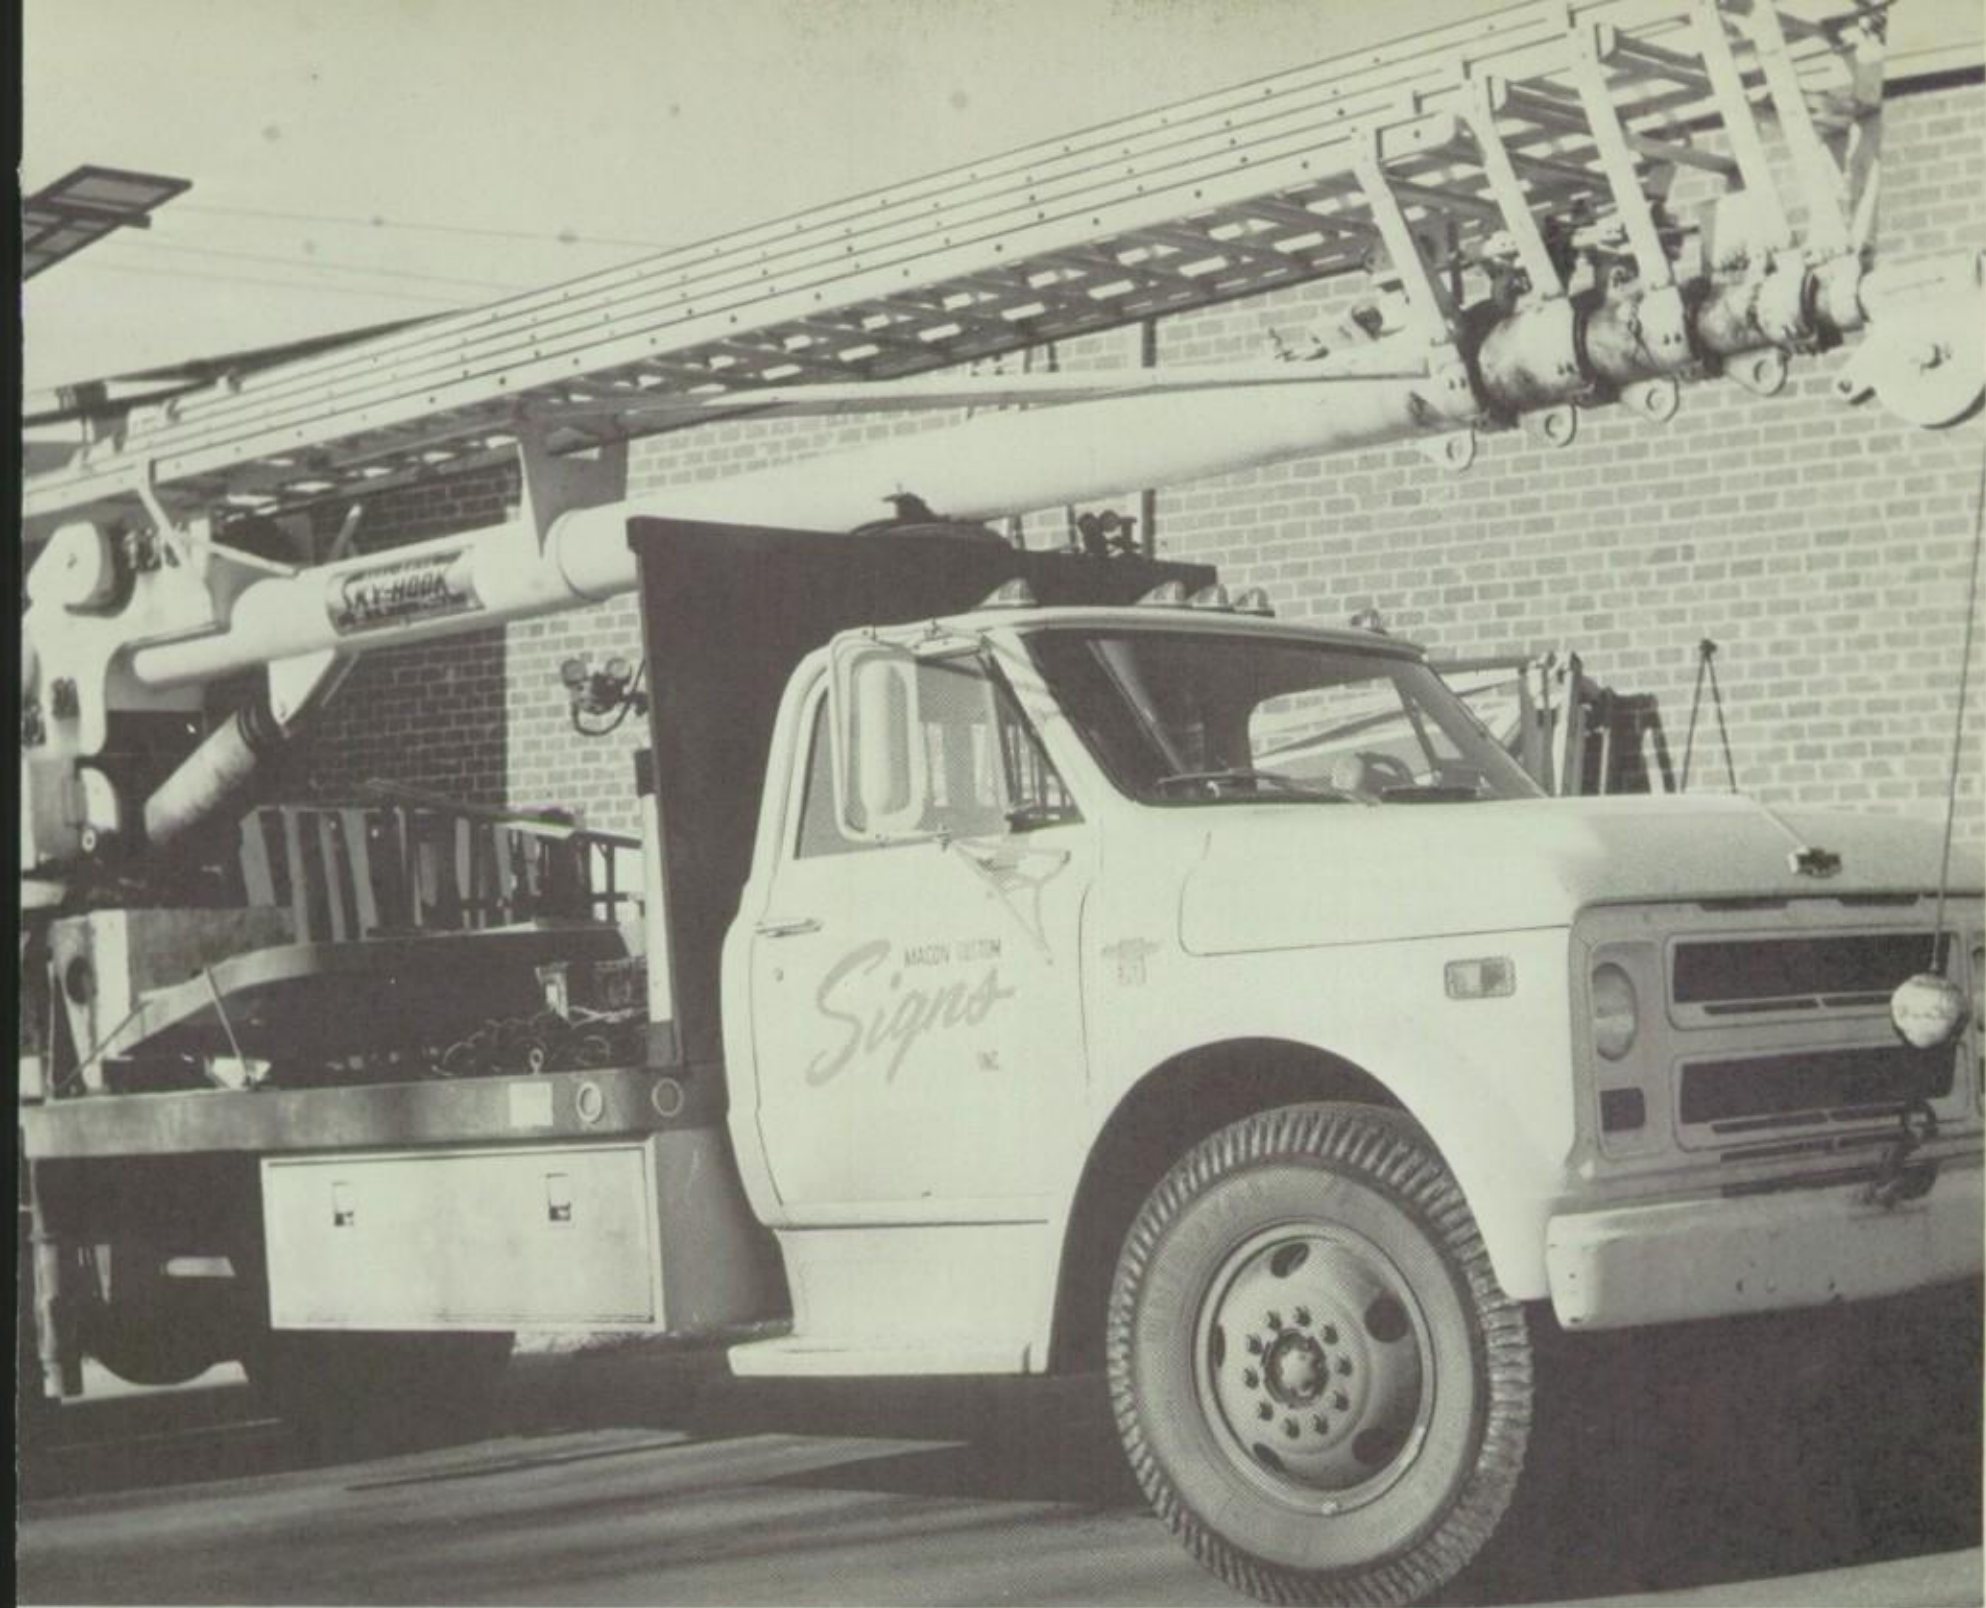

Men who are not ashamed to say "No", with emphasis and who are not ashamed to say, "I can't afford it."

Editors' Epilogue

There were many who disappointed us in their contribution of work on this book. And then, there are those for whom we are most grateful. We wish to thank each individual who contributed to make this annual a success in every aspect.

There were lonely times when none of it seemed worthwhile - but encouragement from many brought about great accomplishments.

There were an infinite number of times when we would have liked to have forgotten about this annual rather than to continue working on it. But because of an encouraging word from a friend or stranger, we continued to struggle through to the end.

There were many mistakes made, but our goal was to reflect this past year at Monroe Academy in its most exciting and unique moments.

We hope that this annual will remain as a cherished book to each of our fellow students in the years to come.

In our years here, we have grown to love Monroe Academy - and, we are proud that we can leave something lasting behind us.

We've worked hard to make this book a success. The end has now come and it all seems worthwhile as we proudly present the 1970 Chrysalis.
